

BALTIMORE SUN

NOV 3 1960

Kennedy Briefed Again By CIA

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 2 (Special)—Senator Kennedy today got his third secret briefing on international developments from the Central Intelligence Agency while flying from Los Angeles to San Diego.

Gen. Charles P. Cabell, deputy director of the intelligence set-up headed by Allen Dulles, flew out from Washington at Kennedy's request, spending about thirteen minutes with Kennedy in the latter's two-motored Convair, the "Carolyn," during the short flight.

Kennedy has had two previous briefings, one from Dulles at Hyannis Port, Mass., shortly after his nomination, and the other in Washington.